

The map illustrates the campus layout of Athens High School. At the top, St. Anastasia Church is shown. Below it, Hamman Dr runs horizontally. A green box labeled 'A' is located near the church. A dashed teal line leads from 'A' to a large white box labeled 'Enter Here' with a teal arrow pointing right. To the right of this arrow is the Athens High School building, a large grey shape. A yellow box labeled 'VIP' is positioned above the school building. Below the school building is Adams School Dr. A purple line, representing a bus drop-off area, runs along the bottom of the school building. To the left of Adams School Dr is a white box labeled 'B'. To the right of Adams School Dr is a blue box labeled 'C'. A dashed teal line runs along the bottom of the school building and then turns left to connect to box 'B'. At the bottom of the map, E Wattles Rd runs horizontally. On the right side, John R Rd runs vertically. A legend box is located in the upper middle section of the map, containing the following information:
